

Tips For Taxes

Filing taxes for the first time might seem like a headache, but with tips and guidance, you'll feel like a certified adulting champ!

Round up all the paperwork you need before diving in!

W-2 Forms

Shows income earned from your employer.

1099 Forms

For other income sources and self-employment.

Keep your tax-related documents in one place to simplify the filing process!

Double check for typos in names and your Social Security to avoid delays or errors in processing.

Filing Methods

Go digital! Tax software is your friend. Turbo Tax, H&R Block, IRS Free File are like your virtual tax sidekicks. They will walk you through the process step by step.

Mistakes to Avoid

- Don't forget to report all income.
 - Double-check your routing and account numbers if opting for direct deposit.
 - Don't miss the deadline (April 15th) without filing for an extension.
- 